Rolling Down to Old Maui

$\text{♩} = 132$

It's a damn tough life full of toil and strife we whale-men un-der go. And we

6 don't give a damn when the whal-ing's done how hard the winds did blow. 'Cause we're

10 home-ward bound from the arc-tic ground with a good ship taugt and free. And we

14 won't give a damn when we drink our rum with the girls of old Ma - ui.

17 Roll-ing down to old Ma - ui, me boys, roll-ing down to old Ma - ui. We're 21 home-ward bound from the Arc-tic ground, roll-ing down to old Ma - ui.

It's a damn tough life full of toil and strife we whalersmen undergo And we don't give a damn when the whaling's done how hard the winds did blow 'Cause we're homeward bound from the Arctic Ground with a good ship taut and free And we won't give a damn when we drink our rum with the girls of old Maui

Chorus: Rolling down to old Maui, me boys, rolling down to old Maui We're homeward bound from the Arctic Ground, rolling down to old Maui

Once more we sail with the northerly gale through the ice and wind and rain Them coconut fronds, them tropical lands, we soon shall see again Six hellish months we've passed away on the cold Kamchatka Sea But now we're bound from the Arctic Ground, rolling down to old Maui

[Chorus]

Once more we sail with the northerly gale towards our island home Our main mast sprung, our whaling done, and we ain't got far to roam Our stuns'l boom's been carried away, what care we for that sound A living gale is after us, thank God we're homeward bound

[Chorus]

How soft the breeze through the island trees, now the ice is far astern Them native maids in their island glades are awaiting our return Even now, their big brown eyes look out, hoping some fine day to see Our baggy sails running afore the gales, rolling down to old Maui

[Chorus]

And now we're anchored in the bay, with kanakas all around With chants and sweet alohas, they greet us homeward bound And now ashore, we'll have good friends, we'll paint the beaches red Awaken in the arms of an island maid with a big fat aching head

[Chorus]
